

Privacy Policy

Global Transfer Services processes limited information solely for system-based transfer tracking, verification, audit logging, and internal compliance purposes.

Information processed through this platform may include transfer references, transaction metadata, and verification records. The platform does not knowingly sell, rent, or disclose personal data to unauthorized third parties.

Data access is restricted to authorized personnel and systems and is subject to internal security controls and monitoring procedures.

Data retention is governed by internal compliance policies and applicable legal or regulatory requirements, after which records may be archived or securely disposed of.

© 2026 Global Transfer Services. All rights reserved.